

Snowball Viburnum

Snowball Viburnum is a popular ornamental shrub with prolific flowering. This plant is prized for its round clusters of white flowers that resemble snowballs, delighting children and adults. In fall, its leaves turn vibrant shades of red. Snowball Viburnum is sought after as a single accent shrub, but can also make a dense hedge or privacy screen.

QUICK FACTS

Height: 10 ft

Spread: 10 ft

Moisture: normal

Light: partial shade, full sun

Fall colour: purplish-red

Berries: red to dark purple berries

Flowers: white

Bark: gold to gray

Growth rate: medium

Life span: medium

Maintenance: low

Suckering: low